

Peter Rossomando

University of New Haven

Rossomando was named the head football coach at UNH on December 13, 2007. He has 17 seasons of collegiate coaching experience under his belt, including eight years at the Division I level.

In seven seasons as an assistant and associate head coach at Division I University at Albany, Rossomando helped the team to 46 wins, three conference championships and an ECAC title. This is Peter's second stop at UNH. As an assistant under Tony Sparano (now the head coach of the Miami Dolphins), Rossomando helped the Chargers to two NCAA appearances, including a spot in the 1997 national championship game. A native of Staten Island, N.Y., Rossomando played collegiately at Boston University

FOOTBALL and FUN

June 28th—30th

Instruction:

Teaching the basic fundamental skills in a safe and fun atmosphere is the goal of our youth football camp. Rookie or veteran, we will develop your skills on offense, defense, and special teams. You will enter the season with stronger fundamental skills, more confidence, and a better understanding of the game of football.

Coaching Staff:

The Camp staff will teach youth campers the position specific skills that will give you the edge this coming fall. Campers will be exposed to the finest coaching in Division II football. Participants will have an opportunity to try different positions or master their favorite position. All drills will be supervised by University of New Haven Athletic Trainers/Sports Medicine Staff.
